

Boise State Worker's Compensation Claim Process

Contact Office of Risk Management & Insurance if assistance is needed

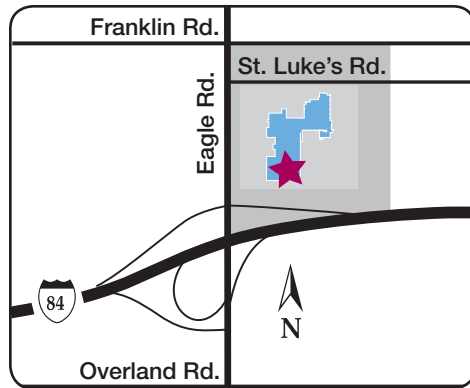

Occupational Health Services

St. Luke's Occupational Health Services Designated Medical Provider for Work-related Injuries

If a medical emergency exists, call 911 or transport to the nearest hospital Emergency Department. Contact your supervisor when an injury occurs.

St. Luke's Occupational Health Services Clinics

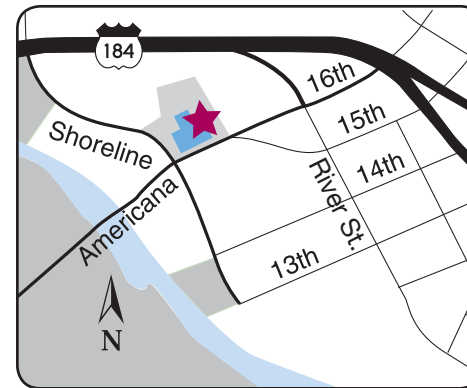

Meridian

St. Luke's Occupational Health Services

8 a.m.-5 p.m., M-F
520 South Eagle Road
(second level Suite #2213)
Outpatient Entrance
Meridian, Idaho 83642
(208) 706-5447
FAX 706-5448

Boise

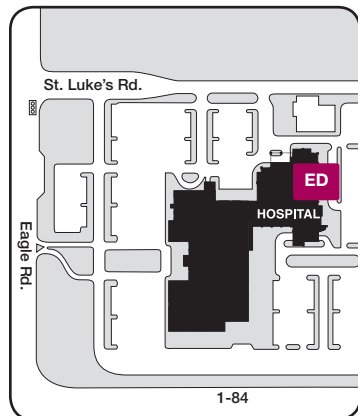

St. Luke's Occupational Health Services

8 a.m.-5 p.m., M-F
703 Americana Boulevard Suite 130
Boise, Idaho 83702
(208) 706-7500
FAX 706-7501

(Intersection of Americana Blvd. and Shoreline Drive. From 1-84, take the River Street exit.)

After Hours, Emergency Care

Meridian

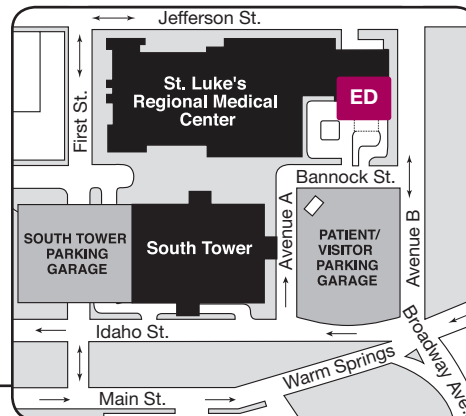

St. Luke's Emergency Department

520 South Eagle Road
Meridian, Idaho 83642
(208) 706-1140
FAX 706-1181

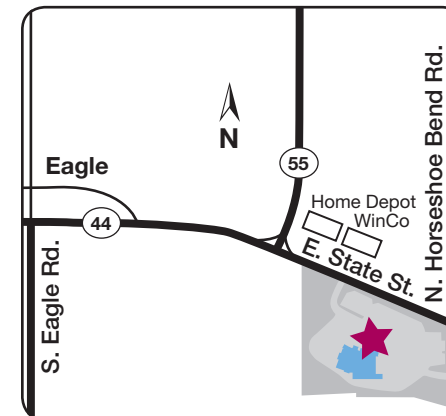

St. Luke's Emergency Department

190 East Bannock Street
Boise, Idaho 83712
(208) 381-2235
FAX 381-4556

Boise

Eagle

St. Luke's Eagle Urgent Care

7 a.m.-10 p.m., M-F
9 a.m.-10 p.m., S-S
3101 East State Street
Eagle, Idaho 83616
(208) 473-3100
FAX 473-3104

*Only post-accident drug screens requiring injury treatment are available in the Emergency Department.
The Emergency Department will not do walk-in drug screens without a patient examination.*